Richard A. Patrick named Deputy State Treasurer

OLYMPIA, Wash. — Washington State Treasurer Michael J. Murphy today announced that Richard A. Patrick of Mount Vernon, Washington will become Deputy State Treasurer for Debt Management, effective August 1st.

As deputy state treasurer for debt management, Patrick will manage the state's bond indebtedness.

Since 1988, Patrick has served as the Finance Director for the City of Burlington. Prior to that assignment he was the Clerk/Treasurer for the City of Yelm. Patrick graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration and Economics from Western Washington University in 1985. He is an active member and former board member of the Washington Municipal Treasurers Association, a member of the Washington Finance Officers Association and the Association of Public Treasurers, US and Canada.

“Richard comes to us with excellent credentials and experience,” Murphy said. “And I have every expectation he will do a great job for the people of our state.”

Richard Patrick will take over the position vacated by Allan J. Martin who was appointed Assistant State Treasurer on May 1st.
